

I can't believe that it is even necessary to send this e-mail. If the FCC does not reject the NAB petition 04-160, it will go against everything that this is good about this country. Competition is good and healthy for the consumer in any type of business, and this petition filed by the NAB has to be in violation of anti-trust laws, as well as going against common sense.